Myra Denson

Myra is a member of Macedonia and Business Owner of You Served home care services of Michigan, LLC. Myra caters to Veterans and non-veteran seniors. What her agency offers to the community is affordable quality homecare- bathing, dressing, feeding, meal preparation as well as companionship for seniors the ages 85 and older and or have dementia, hospice patients.

The uniqueness of her agency is that they also apply for veterans and their spouses' pension to cover their homecare limiting or even in some cases eliminating out of pocket expenses for services. She honors a program through the Department of Veteran Affairs that has been around since 1952 which was originally created by President Harry S. Truman for senior veterans and their surviving spouses. The VA would pay for their homecare services and expenses to cover their activities of daily living.

Myra applies for and manages their care while keeping our seniors in compliance to keep this program active for the rest of their lives. There are 9 million qualifying applicants for this program and under 200 thousand even know of its existence. Myra is extremely passionate about this program and it is her wish to get the word out as there are over 10 thousand people who turn 65 daily.
